Grace Butler-Hoke works as a Music Therapist. This is her first production with Rise Up Arts Alliance. Grace says "I'm excited to have a new hobby in addition to my love of reading, crafting, dancing, singing, and spending time with my friends and family. I hope to do more shows with Rise Up in the future!"

Laura Slaby works at Seton Parish Preschool. This is her first production as an adult after a lengthy break from her [illustrious] high school theater department career. She enjoys sewing and costume design for small children when not working with children in various volunteer positions at different organizations. I have been bringing my children to be a part of theater for a few years, but this is the first production I have done with them. It is a whole new experience and been a lot of fun! I am so grateful for the opportunities provided by Rise Up Arts Alliance!

Jessica Hill is a Special Education teacher at Thomas Ewing Junior High School. She has been involved in theater productions since high school. Most recent productions with Rise Up include: Mrs. Barry in Anne of Green Gables; Stage Crew for Sweeney Todd, and Director for Joust. She enjoys Taekwondo, theater, and travelling. Jessica says "I am very excited and blessed to be part of this amazing theater group. I never thought myself to be portraying an Alien and it has been a fun character to do. Thank you Scott for this opportunity. "

Cassaundra Wiegand is in the 8th grade at General Sherman Jr. High. This is her first production! She enjoys Reading, drawing, and riding my bike.

Hannah Slaby is 12 years old, in 7th grade at Liberty Union Middle School. She has been in 7 prior productions, with some of her favorites being Disney's Descendents, the Musical, Betty Jane's Diner, the Sequel, and Anne of Green Gables. She loves reading, sewing clothing and cross stitching with her 4-H club, and being a part of her swimming and cross-country teams. She loves how this production really brings each character out into the spotlight at some point. It has really been fun developing her character with her fellow SAWPE members.

Cavan Wiegand is in the 4th grade at Gorsuch West Elementary. This is his first production! He enjoys Computers, reading, lego building.

Heather Slaby 14 years old in 9th grade at Liberty Union High School.
