DIRECTORS NOTE

Dear Friends,

We are so happy you have joined us for our Rise Up Youth Theatre production of The Somewhat True Tale of Robin Hood. We have 23 middle and high school students in this production, and for some this is their first comedy.

Plays, and Comedies in particular, can be difficult to perform—timing is everything. The students have worked so hard at the comedy timing, especially since most of the jokes, they are too young to know the reference!

Rise Up Arts operates solely on the generosity of the community through sponsorships, memberships and ticket sales. We keep our participation fees very low, and do not turn anyone away if they do not have the ability to pay. We donate 20 tickets for each show to Big Brothers, Big Sisters so they can attend and provide a fun evening out for their clients. Please consider contributing through a membership to Rise Up Arts, and keep the arts alive in Lancaster and Fairfield County.

Thank you so much for coming to support the students, and we look forward to seeing you again at the next production!

Stay safe, be well and enjoy the show!

Judith Cosgray
